ORDER:

Under section 20 (1) of the Hindu Religious Endowments Act 1926, the Government sanctioned, so far 16 posts of Assistant Commissioners as shown below to cope with the general work connected with the administration of the religious institutions.

1. G.O. No. 1061, Public Health, dated 15.4.44 -- 1 Post
2. G.O. No. 2696 Public Health, dated 28.9.1944 --- 3 Additional Posts
3. G.O. No. 1485, Public Health, dated 14.5.46 -- 2 Addl Posts

16 Posts

The Government consider that the five years rule which has been prescribed for making temporary posts permanent in Government Services should also be made applicable to the above posts of Assistant Commissioners Hindu Religious Endowmenent.ó Only 14 posts, sanctioned in G.O.'s (1) and (2) above have been in existence for a period of more than five years and the Government accordingly direct that these 14 posts be made permanent with effect from the dates of their creation. The persons who have already been confirmed in these posts should be deemed to be full members of the service of Assistant Commissioners Hindu Religious Endowments. The question of making the other two temporary posts permanent will be taken up after these posts have been in existence for a period of five years with effect from their dates of creation.

Out of the 14 persons who were already confirmed, Sri S. Narayana Rao Assistant Commissioner resigned from the service on 31.1.1949. Separate orders will be issued in regard to the filling up of this vacancy.
